A conscious effort for the protection of urban biodiversity

Less than 25 km away from the metropolitan capital of Kerala (Kochi); Hinterlaand offers you the best opportunity of enjoying a break the simple and stunning way, at peace with yourself and the world. On nearly 7 acres of greenery in all possible shades Hinterlaand is tuned into a traditional house, more than a century old, which is surrounded by pools of fish, birds and animals.

*The house (Tharavadu)
has been installed
with satellite televisions in all the bedrooms and also with high speed Wi-Fi internet connectivity.*

Hinterlaand is a refurbished residence of old, which can accommodate a large family or a close-knit group of friends. In the regally furnished bungalow, there is ample room, where in you can dine in splendid style or drift off to the land of nod on blissful beds in the four air conditioned bedrooms.

Hinterland Village offers you some of the most exciting activities that an ecological resort can ever provide. Even though the main attractions or activities that we provide are nature related, we do have space for conferences or get together in the middle of total serenity.

We ave activities like Canopy, Rugged Biking, Sporting, Nature Walk and Village Tour, Feeding the fish, Relax Pool, Elephant Ride and Village Safari
